Why Political Science at Thomas College?

Political Science requires strong critical thinking skills — to succeed in this important field of study, you have to be able to recognize and appreciate different perspectives on the controversial issues of our time. If you're interested in serving others, engaging in thoughtful discussion, and even changing the course of history, political science might be right for you. You'll graduate with a flexible set of skills in research, analysis, and communication that will kickstart a career you love. You can focus your studies further in public policy, public administration, or security studies and demonstrate proficiency in a specialized area.
