"What's your major?" We'll help you decide.

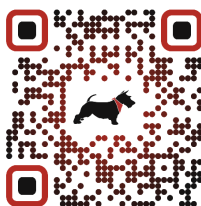

It seems like any time college comes up, this is the first question people ask you. Let's be honest — hearing that question again and again adds a lot of extra pressure on you during an already stressful time.

It's great to have a concrete plan for your future but with many students changing their major after their first year, it's just as appropriate to be undecided. Either way, you're not alone. At Thomas College, undecided is a choice you can take pride in. At Thomas College we will provide an environment and the support for you to explore your unique interests and still complete your degree on time!

Thomas College gets you from, "I don't know what to choose" to, "Look what I've accomplished." Your interest. Our know-how. Amazing careers.
